

MYOFASCIAL RELEASE CLASS
APPLICATION FORM

This is an advanced skills course. Participants should already be proficient at massage and body work, and hopefully have developed the ability to connect and feel what the client's body needs. If not, we will teach how to follow your intuition and let their body tell you what it needs.

There will be ten two-hour sections in all, two sections per class, each building on the previous ones. Missing a class or part of class, coming late or leaving early is not an option. There is just too much you will miss. It is very much hands-on and skills development oriented.

Required Qualifications: Initial

(Please initial each item to signify that you comply with the stated conditions of this application.)

- You are teachable and open to learning new philosophies, techniques, and skills. _____
You are willing and able to participate in the hands-on practice exercise.
- You are willing to learn to meditate and to practice meditation daily for the duration of these classes. (We will be teaching a transcendent type of meditation to enhance you ability to tune in to your own energy and more effectively make connection with your clients.
